

Active Floor

Reflex Active Floor is our timber sports floor with the absorption material and reinforcements already fitted to the underside of the board to create an all-in-one solution. This unique system features the Woodloc® smart-fit dryjointing system to provide perfect gap free installation every time. The result is an even surface with optimal shock protection, counteracting injuries when running, landing or falling during intense activity.

Active Floor Benefits

28mm low finished floor height

Ideal for renovations and new build projects

Factory finished, UV Cured lacquer

Fully Sport England compliant

Can be uplifted and re-laid if required

Suitable for room sizes up to 400m<sup>2</sup>

PEFC® Chain of Custody Certification available on Ash species

We are FSC® Certified
FSC® C003544

